About the Castlewood Singers

Castlewood Singers is a mixed-voice community choral group not affiliated with any church or organization. As we kick off our 37th season, we continue to provide quality entertainment with a wide variety of musical styles at diverse Central Indiana locations.

Castlewood Singers has performed in several Indianapolis area venues including:

The Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana Historical Society
Indiana War Memorial
Indiana Landmarks Center
The Indianapolis Artsgarden,
Freemason's Hall, Murat Temple
The Rathskeller
Mallow Run Winery

The 2020/2021 season was challenging due to Covid-19. Castlewood was unable to have any "in-person" performances. However, Castlewood was able to collaborate and recorded "Let There Be Peace On Earth" which was shared on YouTube in the Fall of 2020. With the Indianapolis Choral Collaborative, Castlewood was also able to perform in other "virtual performances" over the winter of 2021.

Over the years Castlewood Singers has performed in national and international settings, including;

Spain and Portugal in the Summer of 2022
Florence, Italy in 2015,
Germany and Austria in 2004
Biltmore mansion in North Carolina in 2003,
Tour of Scotland and England in 2000
New Orleans in 2018 and Carnegie Hall in 1996 and 2009.

Castlewood Singer's Artistic Director is Mr. Scott Bradford. Mr. Bradford is also the Choral Education Director for the Indiana State School Music Association
